

Off the Beaten Path

3K & 6K Trail Race

September 28, 2019
Jacob Krumm Nature Preserve

THE EVENT- “Off the Beaten Path” trail race and fun run/walk will take place on Saturday, September 28, 2019 at Jacob Krumm Nature Preserve, Jasper County Iowa; beginning at 9:00 a.m. (8:00-8:45 Registration at Ahrens Access). Runners will experience the tall grass prairie, woodlands, and maybe even some wildlife! In addition, grass surfaces will cushion the strides of each runner. Immediately following the events, runners will be treated with an ALL YOU CAN EAT pancake breakfast and a free single entry into the Fall Festival! Fall Festival is a conservation celebration of the changing seasons and will include hayrack rides, story walk, live music, face painting, bow shoot, pumpkin patch, fresh pressed apple cider, popcorn, games, and more! Proceeds from the trail race and fall fest will serve to benefit the natural resources and sustainability of Jasper County through the help of our non-profit group, Jasper Conservation Connection.

AWARDS- The first-place winner of each race will receive a prize. All race participants will receive a long-sleeved shirt, free single entry into the fall fest, and free pancake breakfast!

DIRECTIONS- Take I-80 to the Lynnville/Oakland Acres exit 179, go north about ½ mile and then turn east on Jacob Ave and follow the signs.

ABOUT OUR ORGANIZATION- The Jasper Conservation Connection is a non-profit group that operates under the umbrella of the Jasper Community Foundation. The purpose of the group is to enhance the quality of parks, recreational opportunities, conservation value, and outdoor education throughout Jasper County. The Jasper Conservation Connection promotes conservation programs by building partnerships and preserving and enhancing local natural resources.
