Results List

Thirteen year old Matt Cahalan, Winterset, ran a remarkable performance on a very challenging 5K course at the 2004 Cedar Bridge Covered Bridge Race. Cahalan an Winterset 8th grader out ran all competitors finishing the 3.1 miles in 20:26.

Ten seconds behind and in second place in the male division was 53 year old Chuck Clark from Carroll in 20:36.

In the Women's division Carol Stephens from Beatrice, NE., 40-44, finished first in 23:58 followed by second place Cheryl Dralle, DesMoines, 25-29, in 24:52.

Franklin Brown, DesMoines, 60+ (actually he's 70 and just entered a new age group) won the 5K Race Walk in an excellent time of 34:09. Teresa Little, DesMoines, 40-44, was first for the Women division with a time of 47:49.

The Bridge Race, sponsored by the Winterset Rotary Club, was held at the newly rebuilt Cedar Covered Bridge, which was destroyed by fire after an arson burnt it two years ago. This year's race was dubbed "The Phoenix Cedar Bridge Race." The course started at the bridge, then proceeded up the Country Club Road, to the end of the Cedar Lake Road and back to the Cedar Bridge.

All proceeds from the race go to support the Winterset City Park Maze, which the Rotary Club has maintained and made improvements on for the past seven years.. The Rotary Club would like to thank the financial sponsors who make this race possible. They are Farmers & Merchants State Bank, Union State Bank, Montross Pharmacy, The Shopper-Madisonian, C & L Construction, Madison County Realty, Madison County Memorial Hospital, Doc's Soft Water, Village Bootery, Fareway Grocery Store, Robert Newton, Brenda Hollingsworth, Jean Walker, Doyle Scott, Joyce Kooker, Mary Corkrean, and Jim Hochstetler.
